Multi-award-winning gin made to the same exacting standards of Alexander Gordon in 1769 at his Camberwell based distillery. It is an unashamedly juniper prominent gin in a bold fresh style, complemented with a sparkle of citrus and hint of black pepper, rounded out by smooth texture and hint of sweetness. Aromas of spice and peppermint. Flavours of mint, fruit and liquorice.

GORDONS PREMIUM PINK

Inspired by Gordon's original 1880 pink gin recipe. Crafted to balance the refreshing taste of Gordon's with the sweetness and creaminess of raspberries and strawberries with the tart tang of redcurrant. A gin that started life at the close-by 600-acre Rathfinny Estate, where award-winning English sparkling wines are made.
